

Press Release
Richland County Community Unit School District #1

October 24, 2018

Community Forum at Richland County High School

The Richland County School District is hosting a Community Forum on Thursday, November 1st to gather input on the renovation plans for Richland County High School.

The public is invited to attend this Community Forum from 5:30 - 7:00 pm in Room 116 of RCHS. The format is an open house, so community members can come and go during the scheduled time. During the evening district/school administrators, board members, and the district's architects will be available to discuss the planning process, review the current conceptual design for the addition and renovation, and receive feedback about the design concept and priorities.

For more information, please contact the Richland County School District at (618) 395-2324.
